The Class of 1958 presents . . .

1958

ARCHBISHOP WALSH HIGH SCHOOL

BUCHMANN BEACON

IRVINGTON • NEW JERSEY

LION AND LAMB

The beautiful seal of Archbishop Walsh High School was designed by Monsignor Buchmann, founder of the school, who in selecting the symbols, has brought together both past and present in a rich combination.

The main charges and the tinctures, red and silver, have been taken from the shield of the late first Archbishop of Newark, the Most Reverend Thomas Joseph Walsh, the titular of the school. The red horizontal bar, called a fess, together with the three martlets, has also been borrowed from the same source.

On the red fess appears a lion passant guardant, the symbol of the great St. Leo, guardian of the parish in which our high school is located.

Betokening St. John the Baptist, the Paschal Lamb forms the crest, and represents Monsignor John O. Buchmann, our beloved pastor, who claims St. John as his patron.

The periphery of the seal bears palms taken from the seal of the School Sisters of Notre Dame, to honor the teaching community of the school.

Nor is the Blessed Virgin forgotten. Under her title of the Immaculate Conception she is recognized symbolically in the silver crescent superimposed over the crossed palms.

To complete the seal, the motto, Funda nos in pace, "Establish us in peace" has been chosen.

This is the significance of our seal. We are proud to have lived four years under its influence; we shall be proud to acknowledge its influence in the years to come.

With Respect,
Admiration,
and Gratitude . . .

Sister Mary Gerard, S.S.N.D.
PRINCIPAL

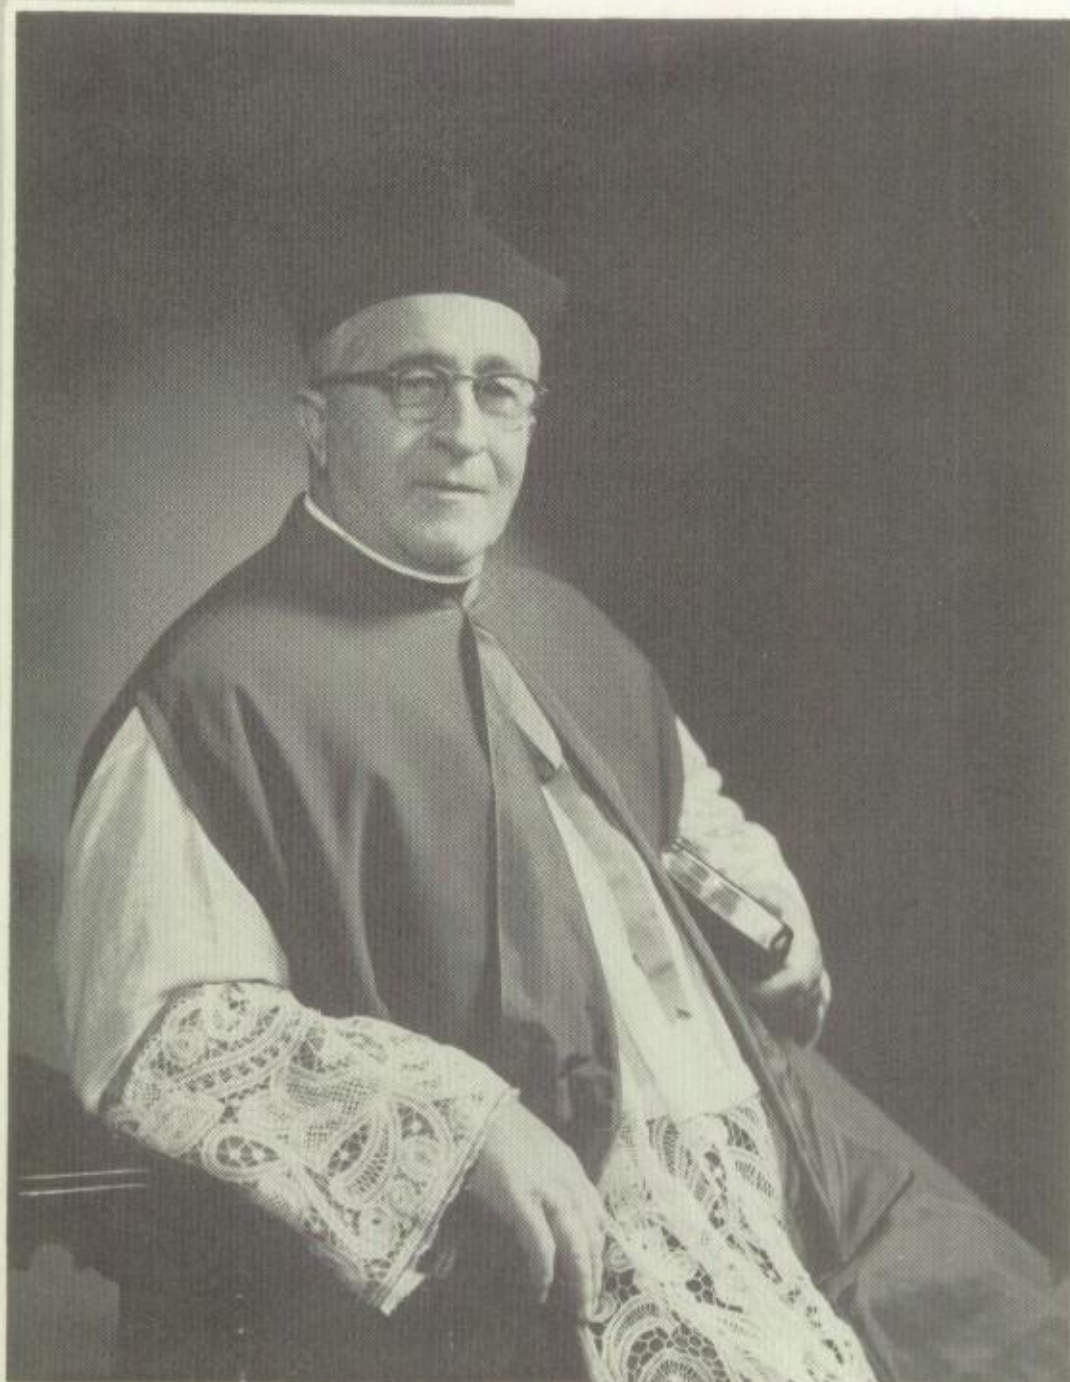

We, the Graduates of 1958, dedicate to our revered principal, SISTER MARY GERARD, this Buchmann Beacon.

Through Sister Gerard's untiring energy, the school has State Accreditation. During its "green years" of growth from sixty to four hundred and sixty students, our devoted principal has developed its personality with patience, wisdom, and encouragement; from three teachers in 1952, the faculty has increased to twenty-two; the courses of study have expanded to include, besides the Academic, the Commercial and General Courses.

These fruitful six years of endless endeavor have materialized in universal respect for Archbishop Walsh High School, and in laurels for its graduates. Under Sister's leadership, scholarship has been nurtured and ambition enkindled.

Sister Gerard is the epitome of goodness; her thoughtfulness and charity emanate from a truly great heart. Daily we thank God for so beloved a principal, and daily we thank our principal for bringing us closer to God.

MASS MEETING—The entire literary staff discuss yearbook problems.

Buchmann Beacon

This annual literary work recalls vividly the Senior Year in every aspect of its school and social life. The Yearbook develops slowly with innumerable plans and revisions which eventually materialize into the finished product.

Both the literary and the business staffs work hand in hand to make it a successful publication under the supervision of the moderator Sister Carola. A feeling of pride, a sense of accomplishment, and a hint of the future envelop each Senior as he views this panorama of a brief but fruitful period of his life.

YOUTH ENGAGES IN CATHOLIC ACTION.

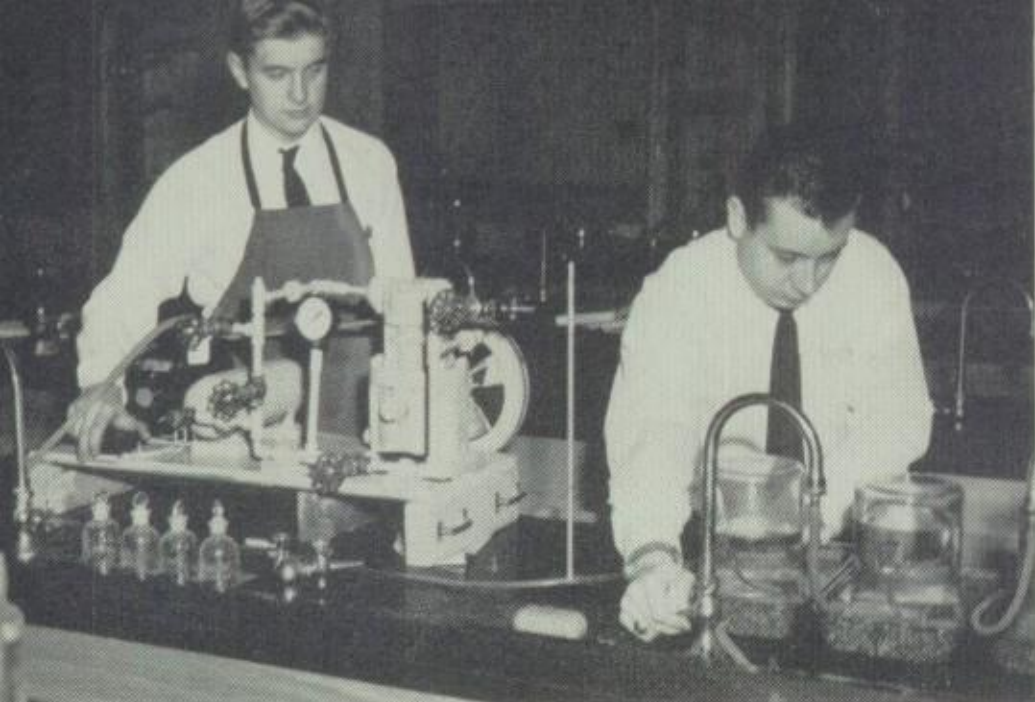

The Catholic Action Club, under the direction of Sister Margarete, performs various charitable works throughout the year. The club consists of mission representatives elected from each homeroom. The Advocate Drive, the medical and stamp campaigns constitute some of the mission projects the Catholic Action Club sponsors throughout the year. The students of Archbishop Walsh High are able to exercise an apostleship whereby they become closer to God through the missions.

BORN CHEMIST—Anthony Mustalish, vice president of the Nucleus, shows how to suffocate a gasoline fire.

Nucleus Club

The Nucleus is the charter Science Club of Archbishop Walsh High. Its moderators, Mr. King and Sister Martina, have in mind to promote a lively interest in science, by providing additional features not encountered in the regular scientific courses. The members, consisting of thirty-five Chemistry and Physics students, undertake special projects to be demonstrated at the meetings, hear lectures by erudite personalities and visit interesting plants, both chemical and industrial.

On February 11, of this year, Mr. King took Senior members to visit the CIBA plant in Summit, New Jersey. The Nucleus hopes to lay a sound foundation for future members interested in the mysteries of science.

French Club

Members of the Senior and Junior classes constitute the entire French Club. The express purpose of the club is to enable its members to improve their conversational and reading French. It also aims to impart to those as yet unacquainted with the language the pleasures found in its songs and dances. It is customary for the French Club to present a skit once or twice a year at Assemblies. Under the expert guidance of Sister M. Margarett, President Audrey Julg, and the other officers, the French Club will surely succeed in fulfilling its aims.

Sing . . . for the Glory of God.

SCHOLA CANTORUM

The Schola Cantorum, or School of Singing, functions as the Choir of Saint Leo's Church. Under the able direction of Sister Mary Coronata, the Schola has completed another successful year in the parish. Schola membership enables Archbishop Walsh girls to sing Sunday High Mass in Gregorian Chant, to participate in Holy Week Services, Midnight Mass, Forty Hours Devotion, first Holy Communion and Confirmation ceremonies.

JINGLE BELL ROCK—Senior girls demonstrate rock 'n' roll styles at 4A Christmas party.

Dramatic Club

Under the direction and guidance of its moderator, Sister M. Gerard, the dramatic club was organized six years ago to give its members the opportunity of developing their interest in the stage. Having adopted the name "Genesians" in honor of St. Genesis, the patron saint of actors, these thespians each year present as their main offerings two plays. The first, a one-act play, is entered in the annual C.Y.O. One-Act Play Contest. The second, a three-act play, is presented in the spring for the benefit of the high school. Participation in this latter production is limited to Seniors. In this manner, students are enabled to test or display their histrionic ability.

Dear Faculty and Students:

We welcome this opportunity to salute the 1958 graduating class of the Archbishop Walsh High School. To the members of the Faculty and to the parents of these students we say congratulations, and may these students in future years reward your efforts and sacrifices by living the lessons they have learned and ever remaining faithful to God and Country.

Sincerely,
